

Estimated Cost
$5500- $6000

per participant

(includes estimated travel, lodging, most meals, in-state tuition,
and fees)

$1239 additional for out-of-state tuition

$500 deposit due upon acceptance
(rolling admission)

Application Deadline

May 15th

WINTER 2025

Psychology of Resilience THAILAND

Jan 9th – Jan 20th

PSYC 310 - 3 Academic Credits

Visit: Bangkok, Mae Sai and Chang Mai

Trip Highlights: Experience Thai cultural values training and tour the city of Bangkok visiting the Grand Palace and Temple of the Emerald Buddha. Enjoy a Thai cooking class and the Chatujak Weekend Market. Participate in Service Learning with DEPDC, an organization that supports trafficking victims and works to combat child exploitation. Visit an Elephant Sanctuary. Learn about how culture can impact thinking, emotion and behavior and ultimately psychological resilience. Examine the effect of cultural history on our thoughts and behavior and compare those cultural influences to American culture.

Participating Faculty: Dr. Amy Corbett, Dr. Christina Poor

For More Information & To Apply international@cobleskill.edu
518.255.5556 • Warner Hall 103

Program costs, including those advertised here, are subject to change without notice due to factors beyond SUNY Cobleskill's control, including changes in exchange rates and international airfares.

SUNY Cobleskill
International Education